

Child Welfare Training System

Transforming the systems that serve Colorado's children and families.

The Child Welfare Training System is a resource for Colorado's caseworkers, caregivers, and other child and family serving professionals.

Through partnership with the Colorado Department of Human Services, Kempe maintains and improves over 140 existing trainings and resources.

Effective and engaging resources.

- Youth services
- Family first
- Trails data system
- Foster, kin, and adoptive families
- Public trainings

The Child Welfare Training System aims to meet the learning and professional development needs of mandatory reporters and beyond.
